The Proposed Constitution.
[From the Address of the Conservative Members of the Convention.]

NO. 3.

TAXATION.
The only part in the administration of the government which has been almost exclusively assigned to the whites is the payment of the taxes. The Convention repeatedly avowed that it was their purpose to lay the burden of taxation on property. In conformity with this idea, naturally pleasing to the negroes, the constitution prohibits the Legislature from imposing a poll tax exceeding one dollar on each head, and prohibits any county poll tax exceeding fifty cents; and requires that the whole of the State poll tax shall be applied to the support of the common schools to be established.

The Conservative members made a strenuous effort to make the amount of the poll tax always dependent on the amount of the property tax, so that they should rise and fall together. A proposition was offered that the poll tax should be equal to the tax on five hundred dollars of property; it was voted down. A proposition was then offered that the poll tax should be equal to the tax on three hundred dollars of property; it was also voted down. A proposition was then offered to make the poll tax equal to the tax on two hundred dollars of property; this was also rejected.

Nineteen-twentieths of the taxes raised will be derived from the property tax, which, of course, will fall almost exclusively on the whites; and by return of the Auditor's office it appears that last year only one negro in four paid the poll tax required of him, which was sixty cents. So that the poll tax will also fall chiefly on the whites. The entire poll tax, State and county, paid by the negro will be about $40,000. A proposition was offered in this connection, that the poll tax paid by the whites should be appropriated to the education of the white children, and that paid by blacks appropriated for the benefit of their children. It was rejected by a strict party vote.

The novelty of investing the non-tax-payers with the power to impose all the taxes assumes a startling importance in view of the exorbitant character of the new government. Our Federal, State and county taxes are very heavy now; but the State and county taxes alone, to be supported by the State and county taxation, will require two or three times the amount now levied for all State and county purposes. Apart from the salaries for teachers, the construction of school-houses will constitute a very serious item. In West Virginia a school-house is required to be erected for every twenty-five children, and in the county of Pendleton they are let out to contract at from $250 to $350 each.

The negroes will also make ample provision for houses of refuge and other charitable institutions, which they can enjoy without any of the anxieties which will trouble those who have to pay for them.

Besides this, the swarm of officers in the townships and counties will necessitate a heavy annual taxation to maintain them; and, it is safe to conjecture, that under the strange system which is proposed, the collectors and treasurers will not always account faithfully for the public moneys.

FREE SCHOOLS.
For the support of the free schools provided for by this constitution the Legislature (under negro control) is authorized to lay a tax as high as one half of one per centum on all real and personal property, and the county or school district may raise the same amount in addition. The State capitation tax is also to be applied to the support of the public schools. The present literary fund of the State, the proceeds of all public lands donated by Congress for public school purposes, of all escheated property, of forfeitures to the State, and all fines for offences against the State, and such other sums as the General Assembly may appropriate, are to constitute a permanent literary fund, and the interest thereon to be also devoted to the support of the school system. How large will be the sum realized from these various sources may be estimated. Yet the children of the property owners who will support these schools can never enjoy the benefits of them, because it is clear that under the proposed government they would be forced to associate in the schools with the children of the negroes.

An effort was made in the committee on education, and afterwards on two several occasions in the Convention, to procure a declaration that separate public schools should be provided for the white and black children. It was voted down in every case. The blacks desired mixed schools, and their white associates feared to offend them.

The question was subsequently brought up in another form by a proposition offered by Thos. Bayne (negro), requiring mixed schools, and a substitute (to the same effect,) offered by Mr. Porter, of Chesterfield. It led to a most angry discussion between the Radical members, the blacks manifesting the most determined purpose to insist on mixed schools, and threatening to vote against the Constitution unless it provided for them. The day was consumed in debate, and, as usual, a Radical caucus took the matter in hand in the evening. The next day the original proposition and the substitute, by the aid of the Conservative vote, were rejected, all of the colored members, with six or eight exceptions, voting for them. The result of these various votes was that the whole subject of separate or mixed schools is referred to the Legislature. They feared to provide for mixed schools in the Constitution, because they calculated that it might lead to the rejection of it by the people. They have left the Legislature to deal with the matter. We have shown that in this body the blacks will have a majority of twenty-one, and it was clearly shown in the Convention, by their fierce and violent speeches, and by their votes, that they will insist upon this point.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gents—The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poulterers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman from this village has been experimenting on chickens with the Gapes. He tried your Poulterers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry. Respectfully,

MEDICAL.
BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.
ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY.
THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Stricture, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Leucorrhoea, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Paralysis of the Heart, Trembling, Fainting, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits, of Youth—second, all solitary vices more fatal to their victims than the long of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, specifically cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by those who indulge in the youthful excesses of intemperance. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost, sooner by those falling into this error, than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Loss of Irritability, Dyspepsia, Paralysis of the Heart, Indolence, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON.
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence in solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, undidating them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pain in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Paralysis of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Der
